Academics

Learning is the foundation of our days at West Chester University. We learn in so many ways from the first day that we enter this campus but the most visible way of learning comes through lectures, textbooks, and professors. These make up the academics of West Chester University and the main reason for us to be here. The pathway toward our futures is created here within this community.

We are here to gain the skills that will lead us to our careers and allow us to take on the challenges our futures may hold. Through our journey here at West Chester University we have encountered endless amounts of tests, papers, and last minute projects. This is what college life is all about and without these tools the learning process would not occur.

This academic world also consists of the buildings that we have passed through during this journey. We can never forget the whispering arches of Phillips Memorial or the strong pillars of the Old Library. These were the gateways to our future, a future that is possible through learning.

Academic Festival

On October 7, 1997 West Chester University held its third annual University Festival. The Festival is intended to bring members of the University community together to discuss broad intellectual and cultural issues. It also celebrates the diversity of interests and specialties that our community contains. The theme of "Celebrating Community" was very evident in all of the different types of presentations on the program for the day. The "give and take", associated with the exchange of ideas, advances knowledge and understanding, keystones of any great university and hallmarks of a strong community. The University Festival, highlighting the variety of scholarly and creative activities of the faculty, staff, and students, was a full day of presentations, seminars, exhibits, forums, and workshops. To allow students and staff to attend the festivities, classes for the day were cancelled.

Construction Watch Your Step!

▶▶ The walkways near Recitation Hall saw a lot of action during the renovations.

▶ Signs like this one were found throughout campus explaining the reason for the construction.

▶▶ One student travels through the hole filled campus.

Warning! Construction Zone. These were some of the familiar sights that were seen all over campus here at West Chester. The steam pipe construction was seen in many of the state colleges across Pennsylvania. Money was donated in order to renovate the steam distribution system.

In the Fall semester campus seemed like a war zone. Wherever we walked fences prohibited us to take the normal walkways we are so used to. Students were often spotted avoiding the construction vehicles that spread across campus. The field located behind Boucher Building was one of the most heavily renovated areas. This caused an inconvenience to the various intramural sports that often use this field. It pushed such events such as the Homecoming Pep Rally closer to Sanderson Hall. The positive element is that the steam systems will be improved for the future students here at West Chester University. By springtime the grass began to grow once again and the walkways gleamed. The fences have come down, the grass has grown and the campus has been restored to its natural beauty once again.

Denise Bowman

▲▲◀ The field behind the Boucher Building was littered with trucks and workers.

▲◀ Just one of the many holes found on campus.

◀ Dirt mounds were seen all over campus.

► Ruby Jones Hall was built in 1899 and served as West Chester State Normal School's model school for local children. Throughout the years the building has always obtained a "home-like atmosphere" which allows it to rank as one of the student's favorite buildings. It was named after the first African-American member who taught at the university from 1961-1972.

Francis Harvey Green Library was built in the 1960's. It contains thousands of volumes, microfilms and fiche, and plenty of tables and carrels for studying and socializing. It also houses one of the coziest meeting places on campus in the Special Collections Room.

A part-time home to many of the students who attend this institution, Sykes Student Union offers so many programs under its roof. Most of the student organizations offices are located here along with the fitness center, game room, the bookstore, theater, and food court. Programs are always occurring in the meeting rooms and ballrooms which include speakers and concerts.

The Foundation

▲ Phillips Memorial, erected in 1925, is where Green Gables, President Philip's home, once stood. The building was dedicated to Dr. George Morris Phillips, who was the Principal of West Chester State Normal School for 40 years. There are many legends surrounding this building. From the whispering arches to the ghost of Phillips memorial this building is a popular attraction in West Chester.

◀ The Old Library was built in 1902 and was the University's first library until 1966. It now houses the Anthropology, Sociology, and Graduate Studies offices. It is also a popular place in the nice weather to sit and read or chat on the steps.

Adventure Based Education

Student Teaching

Student teaching is the end of an education major's academic career. But it is also the beginning of a life-long commitment of teaching our future!

Student teaching is a semester filled with learning about the education field, and taking what we have learned and read in our classes and apply it to an actual classroom. It is a lot different! What a professor said or what the book said means little in the classroom. The whole student-teaching program is to take what you have learned and take it a step further. You step inside that classroom, and you are no longer the student, but the teacher. You have 30 students looking up to you, waiting. We all remember that feeling when we were young. The teacher is the one that knows everything. The one that is there with the answer, or a way to solve the problem. Now, we are the ones expected to have all of those answers.

Student teaching is a time for growth, learning, and even self-reflection. During this time we learn about ourselves and our teaching ability. But through it all, we realize the importance of the profession and we hope to contribute to our students as much as our teachers gave to us!

Leadership Conference

“The Leadership Journey”

For many students, college is the beginning of a journey, the departure point on a course towards a prosperous and fulfilling future. To help West Chester University students in their navigation, the Division of Student Affairs and several key student organizations sponsored the 12th annual Student Leadership Conference, which was held in Sykes Student Union on September 26 and 27. The intent of the conference was to not only provide students with information for use in the workplace, but to give them an opportunity to meet new people and to discover new and different things about themselves.

An added feature this year was a semi-formal motivational dinner with keynote speaker Ann DeGennaro, coordinator of the Drug/Alcohol Education Program at the College of New Jersey. Known as energetic and motivating, DeGennaro spoke both Friday and Saturday on what it means to be a leader in 1997, and how students should actively assume leadership positions instead of passively waiting.

Other sessions of the conference include time/stress management, public relations, and how to motivate others. The topic of the conference was “The Leadership Journey.”

Studying

Learning Life

- ▶▶▶ The professor takes advantage of the beautiful day and teaches his class in the grass
- ▶▶ The steps of the Old Library is a popular place to sit and read
- ▶ This student relaxes as he highlights the day's lesson.
- ▶▶ The noisy cafeteria in Sykes Union does not seem to bother this student.
- ▶ Writing notes, this student enjoys the beauty of nature at the same time.

It is not just a myth, college students actually study. As one walks through campus on a beautiful warm day the campus is littered with students with their noses in books. At West Chester University there are many places where students like to study, besides the library. Sykes Student Union has many peaceful (and not so peaceful) places to study such as the comfortable third floor lounge or the first floor television lounge. There is always the traditional library, which even gets a little too loud and crazy sometimes.

Learning is the foundation in which we build our college career on. There are many ways in which we learn at college. The most obvious learning we do takes place in classroom but we learn about life as well. As we journey through our four or more years here in college we study more than just books. We learn about friendship and love. We learn about being individuals. We learn about responsibility. We learn about life. Without studying, even human nature, learning would not take place.

Student Life

As we journey through life we can not forget our time here at West Chester University. As long or short as it may have been it changed our lives forever. We have long forgotten the fear we felt as we first entered this university and the community that seems to exist within its walls. Whether we live on or off-campus, or commute, we seem to be drawn into this community and conform our lives to it.

This life that we are drawn into consists of such things as 8 o'clock classes, last minute cram sessions, buying textbooks, locating parking spots, early practices, meetings, last minute papers, all-nighters, drop and add, parties, and so on. Through all these changes in our lives we learn and live, we grow together, and work toward our future.

A student's life is one full of studying, working, time-management, responsibility, fear, excitement, happiness, sadness, socializing, and of course laughter and tears. For most of us these days have ended but the life that we held at West Chester University has changed the course of our lives forever.

Life in the Residence Halls

For many students during their time at West Chester University, the residence halls become their home away from home. Moving into the residence halls is the first time in most students' lives that they have lived away from mom and dad. Friendships with roommates and neighbors are quickly formed as everyone tries to adjust to the new living environment. Once the novelty of being away from home has worn off and the semester sets in, weekly dorm rituals begin. In between socializing with friends and watching TV, students are mad at work on their homework assignments, hoping to get it all completed in time for the weekend, which typically starts on Thursday "party" night.

Most students eventually move off-campus and into their own apartments, but not without remembering the special days that were spent in the dorms. Every student's experiences were different, but most dorm memories remain constant: moving in and meeting your new roommate in August, wanting to kill your roommate by October, opening an empty mailbox when you've been expecting mail, 2 a.m. fire drills, door message boards, scary shower stalls, lock outs, neighbors who blast their music at 3 a.m. when you're trying to sleep, bumming quarters for laundry, getting "written up", late night talks and gossip sessions, and moving out in May. This is the stuff that memories are made of and the start of our independence.

▲ Wayne Hall houses approximately 350 male and female students in 6 of its 9 floors. Also located in Wayne Hall is the Health Center, the Wellness Resource Center, PACE, and various fiscal affairs offices.

▲ Tyson Hall is named after S. Elizabeth Tyson, pioneer of WCU's Speech Clinic. Tyson Hall houses approximately 450 male and female students.

◀ An aerial view of a section of North Campus showing two of the dorms, Tyson Hall and Goshen Hall, and the West Chester University water tower.

▼ Named after Grace D. McCarthy, the first Dean of Women, McCarthy Hall is the only all women's residence hall, housing approximately 250 women. WCU Children's Center is also located in McCarthy's basement west wing, and provides an excellent opportunity for WCU students to learn teaching skills in working with small children.

◀▲ Sanderson Hall was named after Christian C. Sanderson, an alumnus of WCU. Sanderson's nine floors consist of coed and single sex floors. Sanderson Quad has a lighted volleyball and basketball court.

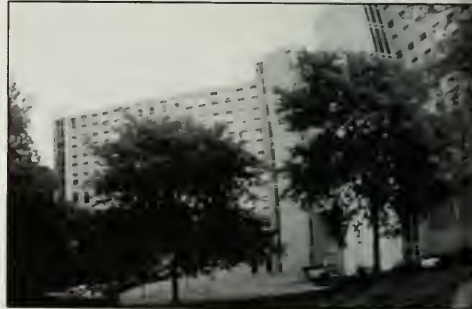

▲ Schmidt Hall was named after Gertrude K. Schmidt, who initiated the music program at West Chester University. Schmidt is a coed hall housing approximately 400 students.

◀ Sykes Student Union Building houses a popular take-out eating place.

► An aerial view of the residence halls on one side of campus: Sanderson Hall, Schmidt Hall, Wayne Hall, and Killinger Hall.

▼ Named in honor of Glenn Killinger, former Dean of Men and football coach, Killinger hall houses approximately 300 students. Its "U" shaped design helps to foster the 24-hour quiet environment throughout the entire residence hall.

►▲ Goshen Hall is a "Y" shaped building, with all three wings converging in a central lounge or lobby area on each of its seven floors. Approximately 450 students reside in this residence hall, which is named for Anne M. Goshen.

▲ Ramsey Hall is named for Dorothy Ramsey, who spent 33 years of dedicated service at WCU as an English professor. Ramsey is a coed hall, housing approximately 400 students. Each floor is typically made up of 1 male wing, 1 female wing, and 1 coed wing.

► An aerial view of the residence halls on the other side of campus: Tyson Hall and Goshen Hall.

South Campus

Life in the Apartments

▲ Four girls take the time out for a picture, sitting in the living area of one of the apartments.

◀ Jo Anne Wimberly takes out a delicious looking dinner from the oven in a kitchen at South Campus Apartments.

▼ An aerial view of the South Campus Apartment Complex. The apartments at South Campus are either two or three story buildings. Each of these buildings accomodates between 39 and 49 students in eight or ten apartments. Each apartment houses four or five students and contains a living room, full kitchen, and bathroom.

If places to live while attending West Chester University were placed in three steps, then living in the apartments at South Campus would be the second step. Living in the dorms would be step one, and living off-campus would be step three. Living in the apartments at South Campus is a mixture between living in the dorms and living off-campus.

Life in the apartments is similar to life in the dorms. The South Campus Apartment Assistant (A.A. - not to be mistaken for Alcoholics Anonymous) is similar to the North Campus Resident Assistant (R.A.). A convenience store located at the South Campus Apartment Complex also includes a computer lab, a front desk, and everyone's mailboxes (as in the dorms). Life in the apartments is also similar to life in a house or apartment off-campus. Each apartment includes a living room, a kitchen, and a bathroom. You have the independence and freedom of living in your own place, without having to pay rent, and water and electric bills. (This is all included in the housing part of your tuition bill.)

You have to buy and cook your own meals - which definitely has to be better than eating cafeteria food unless you really are a bad cook. You share a bathroom with four other people, not forty other people as in the dorms. And of course, you also have to do the household chores - such as cleaning the bathroom and the kitchen and taking out the trash. And then there's the bus, and having to catch the bus every day to get to class. (Good luck!)

But is it all worth it in the end? Definitely.

Michelle P. Kee

Off Campus

Living in Freedom

More than 3,000 students live off campus within walking distance of the university in their houses and apartments. Over the years, the borough of West Chester has become heavily populated with University students.

Moving from the residence halls to an apartment in the borough of West Chester is a big responsibility. The luxury, the privacy, the freedom, the monthly rent bills, noisy landlords, noisy neighbors, grocery shopping, washing laundry, the BILLS...! And of course you can now throw the greatest party in college history. Although many students are forced to find a job after that $200 phone bill. But is the payoff worth it? Definitely. No more curfews enforced by restrictive parents. No more hassels with RA's and rules in the residence halls. Just pure, unadulterated freedom.

A first apartment is a learning experience that offers not only freedom, but a forum for lifetime skills. West Chester University's student population is supplied by many students moving off campus. And of that population, very few would ever give up this new found freedom. Finding friends to move off and share rent bills with is what incoming freshmen look forward to. But when all the searching is done and the perfect house is found, it is well worth it. For a college student it is just another milestone passed on the road to independence.

Commuting

Living at Home

Commuter students travel to West Chester from near and far. They live at home somewhere off campus. They drive or take the bus to school everyday and spend their free time in between classes in Sykes, the cafeteria, or the library. Some don't like having to hang out between classes. They would much rather schedule their classes all in a row (good luck!) and then go home or to work.

Some of West Chester University's commuter students choose to drive to and from school every day. This can be a very tiring experience for a full time student. Just imagine taking five or six classes, putting in some time at the library, seeing a professor, and getting something to eat. Add to all this finding a parking space and feeding the meter or face the horror and aggravation of having your car tickered and/or towed away while you are in class. It is not an easy life, but it is a choice that many students feel is right for them and sometimes easiest.

Transportation

Traveling Around Campus

Transportation to and from West Chester University's campus is a nightmare for many students. Students who opt to avoid the hassle and beat the parking crunch ride their bike, take public transportation, hop on a skateboard, or simply use their own two feet.

Those who choose to drive are faced with the daily hassle of fighting with other commuters who want the limited parking spaces. More courageous commuters try to beat the system by parking illegally. Unfortunately, this often ends with a parking ticket or a towed car. The little yellow tickets from public safety and the large red tickets from the borough line the streets and bloom year round in our parking lots and along the streets as little thank you's for attending this institution.

The parking problem has been addressed by students and faculty alike, and is quickly recognized by visitors to the college. It is an ongoing problem that will continue to be addressed in the future. For now, watch where you park and keep paying those tickets or they'll come back to haunt you later!

Free Time

On The Go...

Free time - those two important words in every college student's vocabulary. Unfortunately, between classes and extracurricular activities, there seems to be little time to enjoy some rest and relaxation. West Chester University students are always on the go.

Stressed-out students opt to fill these hours in a variety of different ways, whether it be shopping at the local mall or at Sykes bookstore, attending or taking part in sporting events, hanging out at Innovations or at one of the bars in town, catching a movie at the Sykes theater or a local movie theater, volunteering time to an organization, walking around campus or in town, or working out at the fitness center. Some use it to catch up on homework and studying. And since Philadelphia is right around the corner, so many students find themselves taking a trip to South Street, Corestates Spectrum, Veterans Stadium, the Zoo, and more. But, perhaps the most precious free time of all is that which is spent with roommates and friends. Who could ever forget the many Seinfeld gatherings in friends' rooms, or those late night talks about anything and everything?

No matter what the mode or method, any student will agree that free time is a welcome outlet during stress-filled college days. We are all a part of WCU history. However you have utilized your free time at West Chester University, may you look back with fondness on the place you called home.

Working Earning Money

For many students, the years at college are a time when they finally realize that money doesn't grow on trees. While money is a great thing to have, there just never seems to be enough of the green stuff. This is why many West Chester University students hear the inevitable dreaded words at some point during their college career: get a job. Students not lucky enough to be independently wealthy are forced to join the working world.

Paying for college can be a tough task. Many times loans and aid can not meet a student's financial needs, so students are forced to go that extra mile to earn cash. A large percentage of the university's students are employed and some have up to two or three jobs. No matter where students find the jobs, the money that they are earning can be put towards tuition, books, phone bills, rent, but most of all the extra spending cash.

These students work their shifts after or between classes at various places both on and off campus. Sykes Student Union holds numerous employment opportunities, as well as the Francis Harvey Green Library. Venturing off campus in search of money-producing jobs may lead students a few blocks or a few miles. Restaurants, music stores and shops in the town of West Chester offer opportunities. And there are many job opportunities available in the surrounding townships, various malls and QVC, the home-shopping network.

The Community

Around Town

The beautiful town of West Chester is nestled in the rolling hills of Chester County. From Buffalo Bill Cody to Greek revival buildings to visits by Sir Alexander Fleming, the inventor of penicillin, West Chester has an interesting history. Its eighteenth century architecture shows through in the brick sidewalks, carriage lamps, brick town houses, and green serpentine buildings. Incorporated as a borough in 1799, this once Quaker village is now a beautiful Victorian community. This rustic setting will grab your attention at first glance, and remain with you wherever you may roam.

West Chester is conveniently located a half-hour from Philadelphia, and is also a short drive to the Poconos and the beach. SEPTA bus lines connect West Chester to surrounding towns, attractions and shopping centers. Its central location and cultural opportunities offer students a needed supplement to college life.

When the studying is done or a break is needed, the community of West Chester has provided the students of West Chester University with many quaint shops, unique restaurants, and entertainment. We can never forget the many times we walked into town to go shopping or visit a coffee shop after. Or the many evenings we spent at the Rat, 15 North, or dined at La Casa Maya (which opened its doors this year). After four years at West Chester University, we will never forget the charming little town surrounding the place we called home.

Spring Break Adventures

As Spring Break rolls around, most West Chester University students head in the opposite direction of good old Pennsylvania, with the hope of finding warmer (and sometimes even colder) climates, from Florida to New Hampshire. If you were one of the fortunate ones, you boarded a plane (or took a long drive) headed north to the snow covered slopes for some skiing, or south for some sun, sand and surf.

Unfortunately, not everyone has the opportunity to travel during Spring Break. Instead, some choose to spend time with their family and friends. Others go to work to earn extra cash to make it through the rest of the semester. And still others use the time to catch up on school work.

Spring Break is a much needed time for rest, relaxation and fun, for students as well as teachers. Especially with the knowledge that finals and graduation loom just around the corner. For most, this break is the last chance to spend time with family and friends before the semester comes to a close. And for those of you that had either interns or student teaching, the rest of us enjoyed it for you.

Whether you spent time with family and friends, worked, or just plain relaxed, hopefully your Spring Break was an enjoyable adventure. May you always remember those days away from the thoughts of "higher learning."

Events

You are doing work from the wee hours of the morning to the endless hours of the night, until something happens to take your mind off the stress of the day. Either something around campus or something in the world. This something changes your life as you know it, even if it's only a minor change or a change that you may not even notice right away. Events play such a big role in your life, as well as in the lives of others. From campus events like Homecoming and Jackie Robinson Day to world events like the Winter Olympics and the final episode of Seinfeld. Even the most simple things can turn out to be major events in your life. Meeting new people, making memories, graduating from college. Events both entertain and relax you. They help you get through one day to the next. They push you forward and hold you back. They have been forever occurring throughout your years in college and will continue to occur in your future. They are the good times and the bad times of your life, but you will remember them all.

Homecoming 1997

Mardis Gras: The Journey Continues at WCU

WCU Homecoming '97 was a weekend filled with excitement, truly displaying the theme "Mardis Gras: The Journey Continues at WCU." The celebration was kicked off Friday, October 17 with a pep rally in Sanderson Court. A bonfire illuminated the court as fall athletes and cheerleaders entertained the crowd. The pep rally was highlighted by the performance of the WCU marching band and the Gospel choir. Although the parade was rescheduled, a rainy Saturday morning did not dim the bright and excited spirits of the faculty, students, alumni and family members for the Homecoming game. Kickoff was at one-thirty in Farrell Stadium and there was no turning back. Halftime provided the traditional entertainment. The marching band took the field and Dr. Madeleine Wing Adler crowned Nicole Barkley and Chris Hunt of the Black Student Union as Queen and King of the Homecoming Court.

Move In Day

It's finally here! Everyone is excited to be arriving at WCU for the new school year. The car is packed and parents are fighting for parking spots close to the door. Luckily sororities and fraternities are helping to unpack and move things up to the rooms. It is hard work and frustrating fighting the lines for the elevator or marching all your belongings up the stairs. After many trips to the room and meeting your new roommate your parents are ready to leave. Waving vigorously as they drive away, it is hard to believe it is finally the beginning of the year.

Civility Day

Civility Day marks another year where faculty, staff, and students are asked to find the true meaning of civility. The event, headed by Valerie Dudley, manager of Human Resources for the University, started with a welcome by President Adler. The keynote speaker was Benjamin Barber. Along with both addresses, there were workshops, open forums, town meetings and the day ended with a student rally.

Concurrent Sessions throughout the day consisted of the following: mauritius, celebrating difference; conflict resolution; barnaga; civility at WCU - what does it mean?; carrying values, civility, and citizenship to the classroom; culture of service; enhancing civility through community service; open discussion on male-female relationships on the campus; reducing acts of intolerance through enhancing a climate of civility; academic advising; WCU celebrates women; collidascope; ethics and faculty/student interaction; how to complain civilly; civility in personal relationships.

Another aspect of civility day was the Creative Project, designed by Garrick Weaver, Marty Patwell and other members of the University Forum. The Creative Project was designed to make the campus more aware of the day and its meaning.

Theatre

Four weeks of gruelling rehearsal from the cast of "The Miss Firecracker Contest" finally paid off on opening night. Carnelle Scott, played by WCU student Kimberly Gilbert, is a contestant in Brookhaven's annual beauty/talent contest. With her brown hair dyed fiery red, Carnelle hopes that her tap-dancing, baton-twirling "Star Spangled Banner" routine will win her the title of "Miss Firecracker" and eliminate her town nickname of "Miss Hor Tamale."

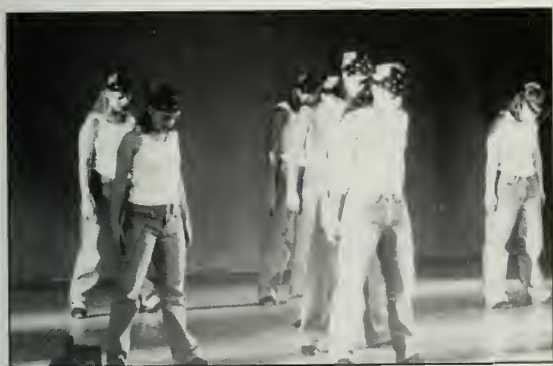

Mary Beth Rim plays Tessy Mahoney, the coordinator of the contest who hurries Carnelle out of her dressing room and on stage. Carnelle is supported by her friends, played by WCU students Mary Kate Kenney, Kristy Craig, Sean Faye, and Robert Brown.

Spring Weekend

“The Real World: West Chester”

Spring weekend was held April 18th and 19th; this year's theme was “The Real World: West Chester”. “Deepher Dude”, the all-male beauty contest sponsored by Delta Phi Epsilon, kicked off Spring Weekend. A carnival was held on Saturday in the residential quad, where students participated in all sorts of games, activities and amusements; proceeds from the carnival benefited the Chester County Fund for Women and Girls.

That evening, RHA's annual Spring Gala, a semi-formal entitled “Moonlight and Roses”, was held at the Chadds Ford Ramada Inn. Tickets to the event got students a meal of roast beef, chicken, and seafood florentine with a side of salad. Approximately 120 students took advantage of the offer.

A band extravaganza was held in the residential quad on Sunday, coinciding with a volleyball tournament. This year's events were made possible through the suggestions and hard work of many organizations, including SAC, ROC, SGA, ITC, and Residence Life.

LUVIM Programs

We are all one in the journey, but each unique in our oneness

▲ Tony Campolo, Ph.D., is the professor of sociology and the director of the urban studies program at Eastern College. Dr. Campolo is the Founder and President of the Evangelical Association for the Promotion of Education, an organization involved in educational, medical, and economic programs in Third World countries and at-risk young people in urban America. Dr. Campolo is often quoted by President Clinton for his work with the youth of the world. Tony Campolo received his undergraduate degree from Eastern College and Ph.D. degree from Temple. He spoke on the topic, "Is Jesus a Republican or Democrat?" on Wednesday, September 3rd.

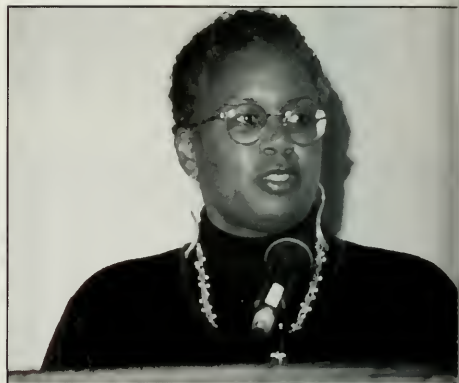

▲ David Horowitz is the President of the Center for the Study of Popular Culture. Seeking to "stimulate" the minds of his audience, Horowitz, 1960s left wing radical turned conservative speaker and author, spoke on Wednesday October 22nd on such controversial topics as racism, affirmative action and the black community. Horowitz, president of the Los Angeles based Center for the Study of Popular Culture, co-editor of the book "The Race Card" and author of "The Radical Son", his autobiography, voiced his right wing views to an anxious crowd.

▶ Sharon Robinson, daughter of Jackie and Rachel Robinson, is Director of Educational Programming for Major League Baseball. Her discussion on Wednesday, October 1st, centered on her new book, Stealing Home, which describes her life living with the legend who broke the color barrier in major league baseball fifty years ago. Robinson described her family as a civil rights family, not as a baseball family, as most would probably assume. Robinson took many years to finish her book, and in the process realized the courage it took her father to break the color barrier of not only baseball, but of the country.

◀ The most visible spokesperson America's Latino community, Emmy Award winning actor Edward James Olmos, is best known for his roles in feature films "Miami Vice", "Stand and Deliver", and "Selena". Olmos spoke on discrimination in various ways, with an emphasis on discrimination against Latinos in his lecture series, "We're All in the Same Gang" on September 24th. The socialist activist pointed to discrimination in his own area to illustrate the need for a lecture series. Olmos believes that education is not providing enough history; knowledge for minorities about their cultures. He believes that the key to treating societal problems is to treat these problems before the fact.

◀ Elizabeth Holtzman is an attorney with the New York City firm of Herrick, Feinstein. Holtzman began her distinguished career in public service when she won a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in 1972. This four term congresswoman served on the House Judiciary Committee and won national attention for her role in the Watergate hearings about the Nixon pardon. She spoke about her book, "Who Said It Would Be Easy?: One Woman's Life in the Political Arena" on Wednesday, October 29th. Her book concentrates on a life of commitment to issues and leadership on multiple positions of power and responsibility.

Democracy as seen through the eyes of thinkers and doers

◀ Walter Naegle, Executive Director of the Bayard Rustin Fund and life partner of Bayard Rustin, and Norman Hill, President of the A. Philip Randolph Institute and Bayard Rustin successor as head of the historical organization, spoke together in tribute to the historical working relationship between Martin Luther King, Jr. and Bayard Rustin during the civil rights era. These two men spoke on the topic: Bayard Rustin and Martin Luther King, Jr.: Collaborative Leadership Development in the Civil Rights Movement on Tuesday, January 20th.

▲ Alexis Moore is a member of the Editorial Board of the Philadelphia Inquirer. She joined the board as a writer and columnist upon her return to Washington, D.C. where she served as national correspondent. Moore visited WCU on February 4th to discuss the memoir of Ruth Wright Hayre, the first full-time African American teacher in the Philadelphia public school system, the first African-American senior high school principal, and the first woman president of the Philadelphia Board of Education, her co-author of the book titled "Tell Them We Are Rising." This is the story of the family and traditions that inspired that phenomenal gift, which took 116 boys and girls through six years of public school life on the wings of one woman's determination to make a difference in their lives.

Reverend Church is the son of the late Senator Frank Church of Idaho. Reverend Church, whose speech on February 18th focused on his latest book, Life-Holding On (Letting Go), told of several experiences at the Unitarian Church of All in New City, where he is the senior minister. He said in each case, the parishioners difficulty with spirituality is rooted in their striving for false goals. Church suggested that religion is likely to provide comfort, but in many cases it does not. If it may be short lived. He proposed a different approach on religion, one which focused on goals of dignity and compassion. Dr. Church stated that it is crucial not to search for reasons in times of trouble, noting that there is no real answer to the question, "Why?"

▶ Dickie Noles is known for his pitching performance in game four of the 1980 World Series. But one pitch in the game made him infamous. It was high and inside; its purpose was to brush back Kansas City's George Brett. Some claim the pitch was a turning point in the series. It motivated the Phillies to win their only World Series title. Now some 17 years later, his new pitch is thrown to brush back young people from using drugs and alcohol. Noles began drinking heavily as a teenager. A brilliant baseball career was shortened because of the devastating effects of his alcohol abuse. In 1990 his dedication to educating thousands of children, teachers and parents on the dangers of substance abuse began. Dickie Noles presented a program on his life story and it's meaning to today's youth on April 6th.

Richard Lapchick, who spoke on February 18th, is founder and director of the Center of Sport Society. Since its inception in 1984, the center has received national attention to its pioneering efforts in the area of athlete education from junior high school through the professional ranks. The Center is a member of the National Consortium for Academic and Sports which focuses on teaching youth how to improve race relations, develop conflict resolution skills, prevent gender violence and avoid drug and alcohol abuse. Dr. Lapchick serves as an advisor to Reverend Jesse Jackson and the Rainbow Commission on Fairness in Sport and to the players and coaches of the NBA and NFL.

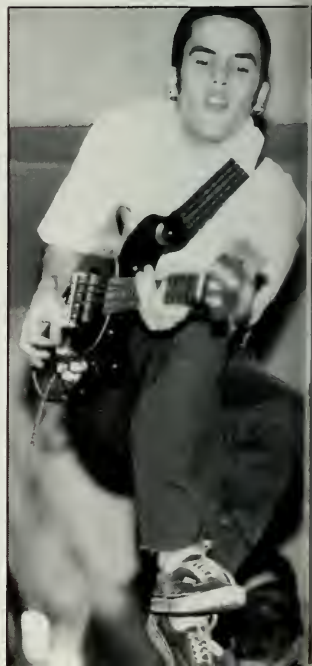

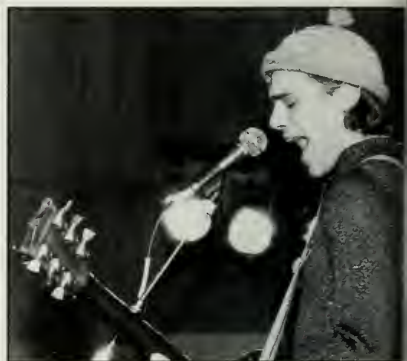

◀ Donna Red Wing joined the Human Rights Commission as its national field director in 1996 to build the movement from the grassroots up. Red Wing presented a speech entitled "Postcards From the Front: An Overview of Gay and Lesbian Activism Around the Country" on March 24th. In it, she stressed the importance of gays and lesbians actively and effectively combating the lies and stereotypes that the radical right suggests.

Battle of the Bands

Five bands, whose music stretched across the spectrum of rock, competed in the Ninth Annual West Chester Battle of the Bands. And as an added bonus, there was a side stage with a band named Bliss that would play during tear down and set up time on the main stage.

It all began about eight o'clock with a three-piece band named Eck; energetic and modest, these guys were innovative right down to their look. Next up on the main stage was the ever popular Guandonoland; confident, casual and cool as anything, this band won the crowd over. Local ska wonder, the N.C. Thirteens, came bounding onto the stage. The Passenger Train Proposal, the winner of the competition, played next, rocking the place as loudly as you could get. The last band to play was an experienced six-piece band called the Redwoods.

Dance Marathon

West Chester's Inter-Greek Council sponsored its first Dance Marathon, which was held March 27 through March 29. The fundraiser benefited the Neonatal and Pediatric divisions of the Chester County Hospital and the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. The marathon featured 36 hours of dancing, with each hour having a different theme, ranging from 80's music to Big Band. Local bands, a DJ, and the Philadelphia 76'ers dancers were there to boost the morale of the participants.

To be a dancer, IGC requested that each participant raise a minimum of $100 worth of pledges. Donators could give money per hour (that one dances) or one amount. IGC hopes to make the event annual, and hopes WCU will become synonymous with helping the children of Chester County.

1997-1998

The Year in Review

►Garth Brooks' entrance into the world of country music wasn't as easy as it looked. After graduating from Oklahoma State University with a degree in advertising, he headed for Nashville to follow in the footsteps of his musical hero, George Strait. His first efforts met with total failure. About two years later, he took another shot at it, appearing in an amateur talent showcase as a last-minute replacement. That was about 10 years ago. His recent concert in Central Park in New York City attracted hundreds of thousands of fans.

►►The roving vehicle Sojourner, the first mobile explorer to land on another planet, landed on Mars in 1997 and gathered soil and rocks. Overcoming communications trouble and other setbacks, the Sojourner left the Mars Pathfinder landing craft. The robotic rover's six metal wheels rolled slowly down a ramp and came to a stop on the surface. The Sojourner, which was about the size of a microwave oven, began crawling around the surface of Mars, transmitting a flood of information to scientists back on earth.

►The WNBA — Women's National Basketball Association — completed its inaugural season with the Houston Comets defeating the New York Liberty for the championships. And as the season came to a close, the WNBA announced that the eight-team league would grow to 10 teams in 1998. If it all works out, the Comets will jump to the Western Conference with Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah. The new teams, Detroit and Washington, D.C., will join the East with Charlotte, Cleveland and New York.

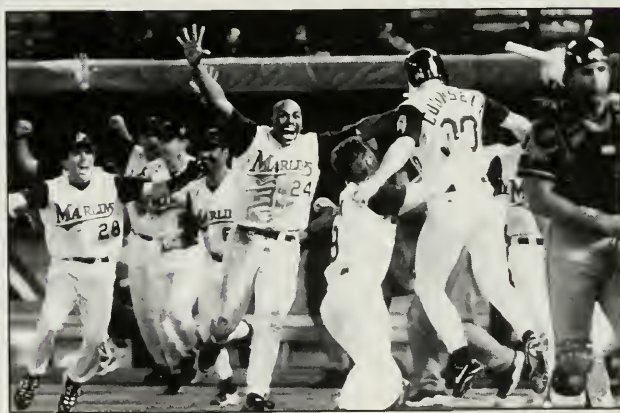

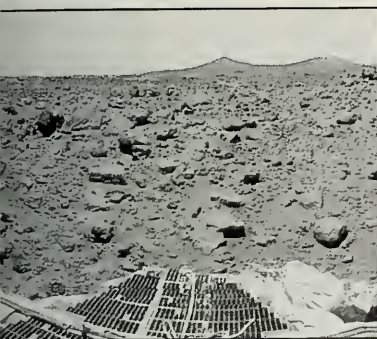

▲President Bill Clinton was the first Democratic president in 60 years elected to a second term. A centrist New Democrat, he transformed his beleaguered party. Under his presidency, the United States enjoyed the lowest of inflation since the early 1960s, and he was the first president in 17 years to submit a balanced budget to Congress. His vice president, Al Gore, considered a very powerful vice president and was the president's closest advisor. The 49-year-old Gore was considered a favorite for the Democratic presidential nomination in year 2000. However, a year after their re-election, both men were under close scrutiny for campaign finance violations.

◀How did a trio of adolescent boys from America's heartland manage to hit stardom in the music world? By being young, cute, blonde and happy, the brothers Hanson became the newest kids on the pop charts. The band's infectious single "MMMBop" and their album "Middle of Nowhere" flooded the airwaves around the world. Isaac(16), Taylor(14) and Zac(11) grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma. But success didn't come overnight. The youngsters dealt with their share of rejection slips before they were discovered in 1996 at the Kansas State Fair.

▼Mother Teresa was among the most well-known and highly respected women in the world in the later half of the twentieth century. In 1948 she founded a religious order of Roman Catholic nuns in Calcutta, India, called the Missionaries of Charity. Through this order, she dedicated her life to helping the poor, the sick and the dying around the world, particularly those in India. Her selfless work with the needy brought her much acclaim and many awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She died at the age of 87 on September 5, 1997 of heart failure at her convent in Calcutta.

▲The Florida Marlins became major league baseball's world champions in 1997, beating the Cleveland Indians in the World Series. Just five years old, the Marlins tied the Indians in the ninth inning of the seventh game and went on to win it all in the eleventh inning with a score of 3-2. The Indians last won the Series in 1948.

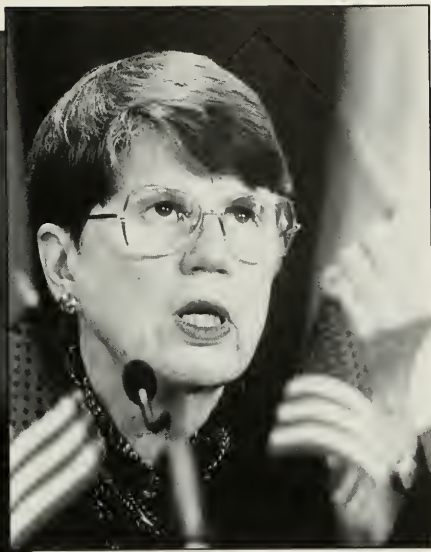

◀The 11,000 residents of the Caribbean island of Montserrat witnessed first hand the devastation that a very active volcano can cause. The volcano belched ash and small rocks over several days in September and forced more than two-thirds of the population to evacuate the island. A shortage of housing was one of the biggest problems, especially for those evacuating the central communities of the island. The volcano on the British protectorate island became active about two years ago, and the latest eruptions caused most of the population to flee to Britain or other Caribbean islands.

▲▲ In one of the most competitive games in Super Bowl history, John Elway and Terrell Davis led the Denver Broncos to a 31-24 upset of the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXII. The Broncos' first National Football League championship ended the American conference's 13-year losing streak in the Super Bowl.

▲► Britain and the world bid farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, on a sparkling September morning with a grand tribute rich in pageantry. Since her death in a car crash in Paris a week before, the country had witnessed an astonishing outpouring of grief that forced a repentant monarchy to join in the kind of full celebration of Diana's life that the millions of people who flooded into London demanded. Her sons, William, 15, and Harry, 12, stood in attendance, joined by their father, Prince Charles and her brother, Earl Spencer, as her body was taken into Westminster Abbey. Millions packed the city for the funeral of Diana. It was a crowd unmatched since the end of World War II. More than a million bouquets by official count were stacked outside the royal palaces.

▲Attorney General Janet Reno was the first female attorney general of the United States. She was nominated by President Clinton in 1993, and she was appointed again in 1997. A graduate of Harvard Law School, Ms. Reno, 59, focused on the prevention of crime among the youth of the country and stressed early intervention to keep children away from gangs, drugs and violence. Late in 1997 she unveiled an advertising campaign urging the nation's youth to become involved in neighborhood crime prevention and community service.

▼The President's teenage daughter left home in September. Chelsea Clinton went off to college some 3,000 miles from home. The 18-year old National Scholarship finalist accepted an offer from Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif. Choosing this palm-studded campus 30 miles south of San Francisco was a bit of a bold stroke for the first daughter. Friends saw it as a reflection of her eagerness to escape the White House "bubble," and shed the pressures of Washington life. Chelsea agonized between Stanford and Princeton right up to the weekend before she made her decision. Her Secret Service detail will try their best to make her stay as normal as possible.

▲Despite comparisons with earlier groups like Menudo and New Kids on the Block, the Spice Girls have jumped into superstardom, grabbing the adoration that comes with overnight worldwide fame. With only one album to their credit, the five young women took the world by storm with their saucy antics and unnumberable shouts of "Girl Power." The five stars go by the names Geri, Mel B, Emma, Victoria and Mel C. They got together in 1994 and cut their first single a year later. Their album "Spice" hit the charts in early 1997 and stayed all year.

Campus Events

- A severe fire erupted at approximately 7 a.m. on Sunday, August 10, at 600 Walnut, a house rented by several West Chester University. The fire was caused by a lightweight electrical extension cord plugged into an air conditioner in the room of WCU student Tim Foster.
- Cable has finally come to the dorms. The system includes all of the most popular channels offered on most standard cable systems. It also requires a cable box, supplied by Popvision, that comes with a remote control.
- Stone arch brings the past into the present. The twenty foot stone structure symbolizes WCU's heritage and is a testimony to the thousands of students who have passed through its doors over the past 125 years.
- As the University community returned to classes, it also felt the absence of students Gregory Crichton and Lance Martin, who died in a car accident over the summer.
- Dr. Lin Tan, of the Mathematics Department, and Michael Peich, of the English Department, were both honored with prestigious awards in recognition for outstanding accomplishments in their fields.
  - The West Chester University steam distribution system is being renovated to improve service and conserve energy.
    - West Chester University has an unusually high enrollment, with about 100 more students than last year.
  - The West Chester community joined together to hold an auction to benefit Tom Hutchins and his fiancée Jennifer Mulavney.
- WCU senior Kelly Rech is currently living her dream of being a professional dancer; she is in her second season as a dancer for the 76'ers basketball team.
- A crowd of nearly 10,000 people turned out to enjoy the offerings of local restaurants and caterers, breweries and wineries at the 18th annual Chester County Restaurant Festival in downtown West Chester.
  - Two female students were assaulted in two separate incidents, one at an off-campus party and the other in Miner Alley.
- The University changed its student purging policy, sending letters to 1,103 students informing them that they are no longer a student at West Chester University. This happened when students didn't pay their bills in time or have their financial aid approved.
- WCU was reviewed in the October issue of Philadelphia magazine, and the outcome of the review was not at all flattering. They related the GPA's of students to their blood alcohol level, classified students as apathetic and dressing in baseball caps and midriff-blaring tops.
- Approximately 10 West Chester Borough police officers, accompanied by two undercover agents from the Liquor Control Enforcement Board, stopped a keg party on 610 N. High Street. They handed the residents a search warrant, and cited some 60 under age drinkers for various alcohol-related charges, arresting four people.
- The Share-a-Bike program allows students, faculty and staff to ride a bike to their destination, and put it back in the bike rack for the next person. The bikes were donated to the school, bought at garage sales or were abandoned bikes that were left on the racks.
- Students celebrated "National Coming Out Day" when two student organizations - Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Services and the Safe Space Alliance - informed the student body about issues surrounding the gay community. "National Coming Out Day" is the day designated for lesbian, gay and bisexual people to reveal to their families, friends and co-workers their sexual orientation.
  - Esteemed professor and educator Dr. Shirley Ann Walters passed away from cancer.
- The Irving H. Cohen Memorial Recital was held in Swope Hall, sponsored by Sara H. Cohen. Paul Kreider, baritone; Rebecca Abram Kreider, soprano; and Richard Veleta, piano, were featured in the recital.
  - Mark Lukanski lost all his belongings in a tragic fire at 529 S. Matlack.
- Sykes Student Union Building underwent repairs again; construction crews replaced the square tablets of stone which line the outside walkways of Sykes.
  - Cafe Chicane, a restaurant more likely to be found in downtown Philadelphia, arrived on High Street.
- Student Government Association President Peter Kulp was elected to a State Board position; he is vice-chairperson of the state's Board of Student Government Presidents.
- Despite the number of parties that have been busted by the West Chester Police and the LCE, 25 E. Bernard Street held its third annual Oktoberfest with over 150 people in attendance.
- WCU celebrated "Alcohol Awareness Week"; this year's purpose was not to preach against the act of consuming alcohol, but instead to make students more aware of how their decisions affect lives.
- The Community Service student organization of West Chester University donated books to over 700 children in the Chester County Area on National Make a Difference Day.
- WCUR, after 25 years of waiting, finally received an FM construction permit from the FCC authorizing permission to build, secure and operate an FM station for one year.
- The 20th annual Brian's Run, the main race which consisted of 10 kilometers, took place. The day also offered a two-mile walk, a one mile open fun run, a two mile open fun run, and a one mile children's fun run.
  - Lunchbox Heroes, a local college band consisting of three WCU students, appeared on the "Jenny Jones" talk show.
- The "Midnight Masturbator", a man who was charged with indecent exposure, open lewdness, and disorderly conduct after a police undercover sting operation nabbed this accused habitual flasher and masturbator.
- West Chester University Associate Art professor, Victor Lasuchin, celebrated 50 years of his oils, watercolors, lithographs and silkscreens with faculty and students at the McKinney art gallery in Mitchell Hall.
- The Union Advisory Board (UAB) held the Battles, Beans and Books Extravaganza in Sykes Student Union Building to showcase the new coffee cart, the game room and the book store. The most noticeable change was the addition of the coffee cart, which sells Starbuck's coffee products.

Bill Bellamy & Tommy Davidson

Bill Bellamy is a suave comedian who can be commended for bestowing us with the unforgettable term, "Booty Call", from the show Def Comedy Jam on HBO a couple of years ago. For those who are not familiar with the term, the "Booty Call" takes place when someone calls a friend in the wee hours of the morning with the intent to have sex, but sometimes, s/he does not literally ask the person for it. Bellamy not only adores Def Comedy Jam because it is run by his current management producer Bernie Brillstein and entrepreneur Russell Simmons, but he said you're free to do anything on stage.

Bellamy currently hosts "MTV Jams" and signed a contract with Universal Television to produce and star in his own comedy show on NBC. He plans on starring in more movies in the future and is currently writing a new movie. Bellamy also starred in a debut along with Nia Long and Larenz Tate called Love Jones and shines in Def Jam's How to Be a Player for Gramercy Pictures.

Jackie Robinson Day

Jackie Robinson Day at West Chester University and the City of West Chester was held on Wednesday, October 1 with special guest speaker Sharon Robinson, daughter of Jackie and Rachel Robinson. Sharon Robinson is the Director of Educational Programming for Major League Baseball. The day began with a rally on the West Chester City Courthouse steps with speeches from numerous West Chester University and community representatives. Following the rally there was a reception in Sykes Union Theater which offered the chance to meet Sharon Robinson in person. Later that evening she gave a lecture with the topic: "Stealing Home: An Intimate Family Portrait on Living with a Legend." Her discussion centered on her new book, "Stealing Home", which describes her life with legend Jackie Robinson who broke the color barrier in major league baseball fifty years ago.

Athletics

Dedication, teamwork, and pride are only three aspects of the athletics here at West Chester University. Dreams are made within this community and for the athletes they are all a possibility. Early practices, far-away games, injuries, pride, recognition is what is contained in athletics. The cheer of the crowd, the purple and gold, and the cheering ram are what gains spirit and pride within the community. Though these are the main aspects of athletics each sport can also be a way to learn beyond the classroom.

Learning occurs in so many ways throughout sports. When we enter the professional world we must be able to be team oriented, dedicated, and cooperative. The world of athletics can teach us this and more. The challenges that athletes have to overcome in many cases teaches us how to face life head on as well.

The Golden Rams of West Chester University bring us pride in everything they do. Winning or losing, the pride that they carry into each sporting event comes through as purple and gold.

Large and In Charge

The West Chester Football team finished the 1997 season 5-6 and 4-2 PSAC East. All in all was a good season for the Golden Rams, the team played well and outstanding athletes struck their stuff this season. Among those players was senior Ben Tonon, who forged a long list of accomplishments this season. Tonon was named the WCU Defensive Player of the year and Golden Rams Football Club Player of the Year, and he also earned the title of PSAC East Player of the Year. He also led the team in tackles, tackles for loss, and caused fumbles. Tonon was not only senior who did well this season; teammate, Bill Fulton also had a successful season. Not only did Fulton break the 1000 yard mark for the first time in his career (the first rusher since 1993) but he also moved into sixth on the all-time WCU all purpose yardage list with 3360 yards. Fulton's 1590 all-purpose yards this year alone is the sixth highest number of yards in West Chester Football history.

"WCU football: I am going to miss you guys, good luck in whatever you do and remember that Jesus loves you, he died for you." -dOoLs

— Paul Dooley

There were still other players who stood out this season, eight Golden Rams, including Fulton and Tonon, who were named to the PSAC All East Teams: seniors, Courtenay Williams, M Bean, Tom Burnley; junior, Christian Vigna; and sophomore, Vance Row. Three of the Golden Rams seniors were also named to the ECAC All-Star team this season: Paul Dooley, Mike Bean and Ben Tonon. Bean was named as ECAC Division II South All-Star punter for his successful season at WCU; he averaged 37.7 yards per punt. Dooley also finished the season with 1228 yards on 261 carries at an average of 11.6 yards per game. All of the seniors that have talent will be missed greatly as the 1998 season rolls around, but this team has a lot of talent remaining and the potential to become even more successful next season.

— K. Shaulis

"I was very blessed in that I was given the chance and the abilities to play and start for four years here at WCU. I love the sport and feel it is the greatest game on earth. I thank all of my coach's and especially my teammates for the privilege of playing for them and beside them." -ACE

Cheerleading

Let's Go Rams!!

The West Chester athletic teams give their all and excel each year. However, imagine those wonderful games without the cheering and chanting pouring from the mouths of the men and women on the West Chester Cheerleading Squad that both urge the teams on and pump up the crowds. Each year the football and basketball teams are pushed to play hard by those involved in the cheerleading program, 1998 was no different. The spirit of the team and the crowd are dependent upon the entertaining cheers that echo from the mouths of this lively, energetic group of people. No matter how a team is playing, you can always count on the WCU Cheerleaders to display enthusiasm and spirit all the while leading the athletes and the fans to a winning season.

Men's Soccer

Steadfast and Strong

The men's soccer team finished out their season with a 7-12 overall record and a 3-5 in the PSAC. This year's team consisted primarily of underclassmen; only three seniors graced the team. Sophomore, John DeMichele, led the Golden Rams in both goals and points with a total of seventeen.

*"With the youth and potential this team has,
I wish I was coming back."*

— Nathan Resh

DeMichele was also the lone representative on the PSAC All Men's Soccer team earning second team honors. Even though the team will be losing Eric Pisch, Jason Nardon, and Nathan Resh the Rams have the potential to take the youth from 1997 and turn it into experience for a successful season in Nineteen Ninety-Eight.

Women's Soccer

Starting a Tradition

Even though the women's soccer team consisted primarily of underclassmen, the Lady Rams have completed a record breaking season. For the first time in the history of women's soccer at West Chester, the Golden Rams earned a postseason position in the PSAC playoffs, by conquering Lock Haven University 5-1 in November. The Lady Rams also tied the 1994 record of 12 wins for the season overall and finished 3-5 in the PSAC. Two players on the team stand out among the rest — lone senior, Jaimi Vanderstine, and sophomore, Heather Alleger. Vanderstine, a goal keeper completed her last season 1.5 goals against the average and 5 shutouts. She has also set records for minutes played at 446 and blankings at seventeen. Alleger, a forward, has also set records for herself this season. She holds the career record for goals and points, as well as setting the standard for 1997's team with 44 points and 19 goals. Nineteen Ninety-Seven will be remembered as a historic season for the West Chester University women's soccer team and could prove to be a promising base for future seasons.

Field Hockey

A-10 Regular Season Champs

The West Chester University Field Hockey team stirred up the Atlantic 10 in the NCAA Division I. After a 0-5 record in the 1996 season the Golden Rams claimed their first Atlantic 10 victory in history against St. Joseph's. This was the beginning of the remarkable 1997 season.

Under mid-East Region Coach of the Year, Kathy Krannebitter, this team of fierce competitors came together. The trio of seniors Mary Melnick, Kristin Smereczynski, and Heather Vearling led this team to a perfect 5-0 A-10 season. These three were also selected 1997 National Field Hockey Coaches Association Mid-east Regional First Team All-Americans. Melnick, who was named the Atlantic 10 Player of the Year, was the leader among WCU scorers with 26 points and 10 goals. Smereczynski led the team with eight assists and finished second on the team in both points and goals. Vearling, one of the top Division I goalkeepers in the nation, compiled a 15-4 record, playing in every game of the season. Her goals against average was an astounding 0.99, and she had eight shutouts in 19 games.

In only their second season in the Division I Atlantic 10 Conference, the Golden Rams of WCU beat all of their opponents for a title. They finished with a 15-4 overall record, the best since 1987 and its first winning season since 1991. The team entered the NCAA Division I Championship Tournament as the top seed. Although they eventually fell to the University of Massachusetts in the title game, the Golden Rams have succeeded in writing their own worst to first story.

Women's Volleyball

Aggressive and Powerful

As 1996 came to an end the West Chester women's volleyball team was seen to be, "...packed with youth..." seeing as how not one senior had graced the team. As the 1997 season came to an end the team proved to everyone that you had developed into maturity, experience, and determination. The Lady Rams finished the season successfully with the most wins since Nineteen Eighty-Two.

"We faced a lot of challenges this season with a new coach and inexperienced players, but with the talent of the team and support of our friends and family, we finished with a winning team."

— Tara Reynolds

The Golden Rams ended their season 19-18 overall and 6-4 in the PSA Nineteen Ninety-Seven's seniors, Tara Reynolds and Heather MacAulay — both outside hitters, led the team throughout the season. Even though the team will be losing two talented players, the underclassmen along with the coaching of Tina Miller have the potential to make 1998 as successful as Nineteen Ninety-Seven.

Cross Country

A Mile Ahead

The Golden Rams Cross Country teams posed two things that carried them through the season, strength and determination. The Rams started out the season strong and kept the momentum building until the season came to close this fall. The women's team had a powerful threesome returning to its ranks. Kristina Laubenstein, senior, and Amy Dandois and Stacy States, both juniors. Laubenstein set the pace of the women throughout the season joined by senior Collen Coffey. The men's team on the other hand had an influx of youth on their team this season. Some of the returning top runners were Mike Lanci and Ryan Phillips, both sophomores. Juniors Mick Tantaros and Ted Magala were also among the returning Rams.

Women's Tennis

Swinging Hard

The women's team this season proved to be one of sheer determination. This season brought WCU a new tennis coach as well as the return of several veteran players. Seniors Kristine Kuchler and Mindy Weir returned for their final season at WCU as well as underclassmen Rebecca Roy and Tawn Shuey. The Lady Rams finished the season 2-26, but they improved steadily throughout the entire season. Their improvement was apparent to those who were spectators at the PSAC Championships. Kristine Kuchler and Julie Tighe reached the quarterfinals of the fifth flight; Melissa Peterson fought her way to the top, reaching the semifinals of the fifth flight singles. The Golden Rams also had a doubles team reach the quarter finals of the third flight consisting of Julie Tighe and Colleen Donahue. ## Game, Set, Match

The Golden Rams played well this season. The junior duo of Troy Miller and Scott Falatek led the Rams, fellow junior Kimo Aweau, who joined the team for the first time, also put forth a good season, and Dan MacKenzie and Craig Metcalfe returned as sophomores whose experience was an asset to the squad. These fellows were also joined by several other sophomores and one freshman, Joseph Dianna. The team finished third in the PSAC Championship, moving up from sixth place last year. # Swimming and Diving

Kicking Towards Victory

As the 1997 season opened for the Golden Ram Swimming and Diving team, the sights were set high. Both teams had an influx of newcomers as well as the return of numerous veterans. The women's team lost a valuable member when Diane Burkett graduated last year, but that did not stop the Lady Rams from giving their all this season. Seniors Deb Fontana, Kristen Gilbert, Becky Hallowell, Hilla Heebner, and Tara Reynolds finished out their final season leading the way and leaving a good foundation for all of the freshman and the rest of the underclassmen. The WC men were led by seniors Jason Sohn and Sebastian Verstraet. Andrew Bradley and Jason Brown, also returning seniors, helped Sohn and Verstraet to pave the way for all of the underclassmen this season. The Rams were also fortunate enough to have two of the talented squad named as PSAC Male Swimmer of the Week this term, senior Sebastian Verstraet and freshman Grant Clark. WCU also finished the season with junior Alex Palmer and, sophomore, Kevin Sullivan taking fourth place at the PSAC Championships and, senior diver, Andrew Bradley placing second out of 21 divers in the three meter event.

Gymnastics

Lean, Mean, and In Charge

The Lady Rams Gymnastics did well overall this season. The Golden Rams had several returning members who provided the team with experience and several freshman who brought youth to the squad. Most of those returning were juniors — only one senior graced the roster. Jen Cooper finished out her final season here at WCU earning the honor of ECACII Gymnast of the Week twice this year. The Golden Rams were also able to host the ECAC Championships this year. # Men's Basketball

Three Points Ahead

The 1997-98 season for the Golden Rams is one that will not be forgotten. Not only was this season the 100th Anniversary of the Golden Rams Men's Basketball, but the Rams ended their season quite successfully, clinching the PSAC Playoff for the second consecutive season. The Golden Rams advanced to the title game of 1998 PSAC Championships for the first time in West Chester history. The West Chester men started out their season with a bang and the momentum faltered. The Rams finished their season 20-9 and 7-5 PSAC East ranked third overall in the East. The Golden Rams also had several members of the team break their 1000th point career goal. Senior forward and co-captain, Eric Worley was the first to break the 1000 point mark on January 10th against Bloomsburg and junior, guard Donta Evans was the next to follow during the match between WCU and Millersville on January 17th. Evans was also named to the ECAC Division II Weekly Honor Roll this season. He was, junior Lamar Legree for his games against Kutztown and Mansfield. Another player that made an impact on basketball fans this season was freshman Tyariq Corbin. Corbin was named the PSAC East and Eastern Rookie of the week on February 16th due to his outstanding games against Pitt-Johnstown and Cheyney at which he averaged 13 points and 6.5 rebounds. Even though the Golden Rams seniors will be missed greatly, the underclassmen have had a season of working with some very skilled athletes and to better hone their skills. West Chester has the ability to be quite a challenge to any opposition next season.

Women's Basketball

Aiming to Score

WCU started out the season looking to defend the PSAC Title and the Golden Rams did just that upsetting Bloomsburg in the PSAC playoffs. But, alas the Lady Rams were knocked out of the playoffs in the semifinals. WCU was also chosen as one of the four teams to play in the ECAC Division II Championships, but again fell in the semifinals. The Golden Rams gave a valiant effort and played hard not only in the PSAC and ECAC Championships, but throughout the entire season as well. This season proved to be a good one for seniors Megan Garrison and Carolyn Blank. Garrison finished out the season with 424 points, an average of 4.6 points/game, 181 rebounds, 33 three-pointers, 77 steals, and 121 assists. Finishing a four year career here at WCU Carolyn Blank totaled 364 rebounds and 358 points.

"Even though our record may not reflect it, I feel that our team had a very successful year!"

— Megan Garrison.

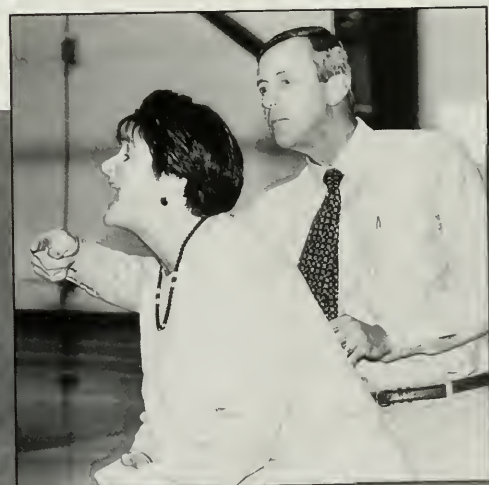

This season also held record breaking experiences. Junior Jodi Jancosko broke the 1000th point goal against Mansfield, making her the ninth Golden Ram to do so. Jancosko also holds the all-time career scoring title as a Golden Ram at 1059 points. She was the lone double digit scorer totaling 375 points this season, an average of 13.4 points/game, and she finished second in steals and rebounds, 38 and 114 respectively. Jancosko and fellow junior Gina Tophoney were named to the 1997-1998 PSAC East All-Star's first team as a result of their performance this season. Although the seniors will be greatly missed, the Golden Rams have the potential to be a powerful team next season. — K. Shaulis

Playing Hard

The 1998 season was one filled with a lot of hardwork and dedication for the young Golden Rams. This season was not a easy one for the WCU Baseball team. Even though the Rams finished 0-9 the ground work has been laid for a tremendous season nineteen ninety-nine. Freshman Jason McDevitt was the leader of a group of talented rookies this year who finished the season ranked second with 4 hits, 5 homeruns, 7 doubles, and a .561 slugging percentage. Seniorteamate Sean McGettigan earned All-PSAC honors and made the 1999 PSAC second team. McGettigan ended his career here at WCU with 14 at-bats, 51 hits, 25 runs scored, 91 total bases, and a .645 slugging percentage. The team will also be saying farewell to seniors Mike Procaccu and Chris Goff. With the foundation laid for the next season it is up to the remaining Golden Rams to take the ball and run with it.

Heading for Home

This season started out with the introduction of a new head coach for the Lady Rams softball team in January of 1998. Coach Kim Franchi inherited many young players who had the talent and ability to make a successful team along with the help of the incoming teammates of 1998. WCU only lost one senior last year but the Golden Rams predicted that the void would be filled by seniors Kristin Smerczynski and Heather Hall. The Golden Rams were correct in their assumption these seniors will be greatly missed next year. However, there are many talented players left in the ranks giving the Rams a winning chance next season.

Achieving Goals

What better way to finish a season than with the 1998 ECAC Men's Lacrosse Championship title? That is exactly how WCU's men's squad wrapped up their season. I guess you could say that the third time is a charm for this is the third appearance of WCU at the four team event. Senior Jon Stearns earned MVP honors as a result of his game against the University at Albany. Fellow senior Domenick also had a successful season, breaking the 100 point mark by scoring his one hundred and first goal at the ECAC Championships against the Great Danes. The WCU Men's Lacrosse team also made its mark in history thanks to junior Sean Walsh who became the first Golden Ram to earn a spot on one of the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference (NYCAC) All-Star Teams. Walsh made the second team. This season proved to be one full of dedication and hard work and even though the Golden Rams will be saying goodbye to six seniors, there is an excellent foundation left to build upon for next season.

Playing to Win

The Golden Rams started out in 1998 with a new coach and a loss of seven seniors in 1997, but the foundation that remained made for an outstanding season. This year the Lady Rams not only earned their seventh consecutive PSAC Championship Title making this the 12th title for WCU, but they made their mark in history as well. The WCU Women's Lacrosse team was the first NCAA Division II team to ever be selected for the Division II Women's Lacrosse Championship Tournament. Even though the Rams fell in the opening round of this tournament, they gave a valiant performance trailing only 3-1 to the 1997 Division II National's Runner Up squad. Looking at the success of squad members this season it is no wonder that these women have done so well. A number of the Lady Rams gave stellar performances throughout the season. Among these were seniors Heather Vearling, Jennifer DiNapoli, Ashley Baker; juniors Teri Minzola, Amy Dolan, Melissa Conti, and Kate Mulhern; and freshman Kim Rochon. Minzola was named the PSAC Player of the Year, voted MVP for the Lady Rams and led WCU with 76 points (44G, 32A) which is an average of 4.5 points/game. She was ranked 5th in the PSAC for goals scored per game. Freshman Kim Rochon was named the PSAC Rookie of the Year leading the Rams in goals scored at 46, averaging 2.7 goals/game. Rookie tender Heather Vearling also had an outstanding season. She earned a place on the PSAC second team by recording 10.08 goals against the average, a .527 save percentage. DiNapoli and Dolan were also honored by the PSAC as they were chosen for the first team All-PSAC defense. Mulhern made the second team All-Star PSAC defense; Baker and Conti were named to the second team offense. Even though the Golden Rams will be losing six seniors this year, a powerhouse remains as it did in 1997, giving WCU a chance to bring home its eighth consecutive PSAC Championship Title.

Track and Field

Speed and Determination

This year was a season of hard work and dedication by the WCU Track and Field members. This year's team consisted of members of WCU's Cross Country team as well as new and returning track team members. The Women's Track and Field will be losing five seniors: Colleen Coffey, Kristina Laubenstein, Tylee McClendon, Theresa Pello, and Jenn Piskei. The Men's team will be losing only one senior Dave Long. As a whole the team performed well this season. This season also proved to be a good one for sophomore Todd Reinert and freshman Joel Musika. Reinert tripled his ECAC honors claiming fourth in the 200m with a time of 23.25; third in the long jump with 23'1/4"; and sixth place as a member of the one mile relay team with a time of 3:32.3. Musika qualified for the ECAC Championships in the jump with a time of 6'6" in the high jump against Bloomsburg in late February. In total 14 Golden Rams earned ECAC Honors, as well as the men's team placing ninth and the women's team placing sixth overall. Even though the Rams will be saying farewell to talented athletes the Golden Rams have the potential to be an awesome force next season.

Organizations

Some of the organizations that are at West Chester University today have not changed much from yesterday. The members of some of these clubs work hard to maintain the traditions and heritage passed down through the years, while other clubs begin new traditions to carry on with their heritage.

As the university expands and changes so do the interests of the students. No matter what the interest - WCU has something for everyone. As interests of the students have changed over the years, new clubs have evolved to meet those interests.

Organizations on campus range from student governing to academic and professional to media to special interest to service and honor to greeks to musical and the marching band.

Involvement is the key for many students. They feel they receive a well-rounded education due to their participation in organizations.

These experiences are not just a path for our future, but they will eventually serve as a bridge to our past as well.

Student Governing

Council of Commuting and Off-Campus Students

◀ The Council of Commuting and Off-Campus Students, CAOS, was founded at WCU around 1978. The 25 members provide breakfasts for commuter and off-campus students weekly, assist with the housing fair, provide a free lawyer once a week on campus, maintain newspaper boxes, provide ride-board, and participate in adopt-a-block. The mission is to lobby the administration to address the needs and concerns of the off campus students, to investigate issues which confront the off campus student, to make recommendations to the university, other student organizations, and campus and non-campus communities concerning those issues, and to provide services and programs for off-campus students that are informative and useful.

Residence Hall Association

▶ The Residence Hall Association (RHA) was founded in the mid 1960's, and is part of the NAACHURA national chapter. RHA meets Monday or Tuesday nights in the lobbies of each of the dorms. The 56 members of RHA sponsor such activities as Spring weekend, sibling weekend, a candlelight dinner, final exams packages, a Valentine's semi-formal, and various residence hall events. Each residence hall has a representative from every floor and a full slate of general executive officers. These elected officers represent the individual residence halls in the RHA General Assembly. The members of RHA are the "leaders of tomorrow living here today." The Residence Hall Association represents the resident student in all aspects of residence life. RHA works for the improvement of campus life for all students and strives for high standards in both the social and academic aspects of the University.

Student Activities Council

◀ The Student Activities Council, SAC, is funded and student run by its 40 members. By utilizing students' talents and energies, SAC strives to present a wide variety of programs that meet the needs and interests of the WCU community. SAC's seven committees and executive board present programs including Club Tuesday, lunchtime entertainment, Really Outrageous Concerts (ROC), blockbuster movies, publicity and promotions, light and sound, and Traveling to Really Interesting Places (TRIPs). Their goal is to plan entertaining, interactive, or educational events for on campus students.

Student Government Association

▲ The executive board (president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer), along with the 70 student senators, make up the Student Government Association, SGA. The senate membership consists of students representing the Academic Affairs, University Advancement, and Fiscal Affairs Divisions of the University as well as 51 senators representing the various programs of student life. These members sponsor Banana Day, Caliph Campbell Scholarship Basketball Tournament, legislative affairs forum, as well as many other activities and speakers across campus. The goals of SGA are to increase student awareness of higher education issues, stand up for student rights, and inform students about our university. The Student Government Association is a vital organization for the campus community and serves as the liaison between the students and administration of West Chester University.

Sykes Union Advisory Board

▲ Sykes Union Advisory Board, UAB, holds its meetings on Thursdays at 3:30 pm in Sykes 257. The 19 members sponsor activities, such as Sykes Union improvements, holiday marketplace, leadership conference, ACUI, Jackie Robinson day, building decorations, receptions, and extended union hours and food during finals week. The purpose of UAB is to advise policies and activities to benefit the students within the student union; to evaluate and recommend union policies, building operations, services, and allocation of building space. The Sykes Union Advisory Board is a student organization that develops and maintains the student union building as a place to enjoy social, cultural, and recreational activities in a pleasant, comfortable atmosphere.

Academic and Professional

Accounting Society Institute of Management Accountants

► The Accounting Society, IMA, is a part of the Institute of Management Accountants. The 40 members sponsor: 1997 tax seminar, mock interviews seminar, resume writing seminar, and an evening with the big six seminar. IMA is a student-run organization designed to help accounting majors integrate their education and business skills. The main goal of the organization is to aid the students in both their academic and business careers. Other goals of IMA are to provide all business students with information to guide them to their professional goals, to provide network contacts, and accounting peer support.

Criminal Justice Association

◀ The Criminal Justice Association, Sigma Tau Omicron, is part of the national chapter, Lambda Alpha Epsilon. The 35 members meet on Tuesdays in 202 Ruby Jones. These members sponsor the following activities: adopt-a-block; juvenile fingerprinting program; tours of local criminal justice facilities and institutions; speakers in the field of criminal justice, sociology, psychology, etc.; mock crime scene investigation. The CRJ is devoted to the advancement of professionalism within the criminal justice system and increased cooperation among criminal justice agencies. The objective is to improve criminal justice through educational activities and to promote professionalism, academic, and public awareness of these issues. The purpose of the Criminal Justice Association is to add a third dimension to students' educational experience concerning the field of criminal justice, to create an atmosphere to foster innovative thinking in the field of criminal justice, to provide students with a support group made up of their peers and with other students of common interests, and to provide an internal network of CRJ personnel to provide employment and internship opportunities.

Dance Production Workshop

The Dance Production Workshop was founded in 1974 at WCU. The 50 plus members and the four officers perform on Monday to Thursday evenings during the regular semester. This year, DPW will produce its 23rd annual production concert. DPW gives students the opportunity to be involved with all aspects of putting together a dance production. Besides performing, the students are responsible for choreography, costuming, set design, lighting, and ticket sales. Experienced students also work on a production staff: stage manager, light board operator, sound technician, backstage crew, etc. Each year the four officers choose a new theme for the show. Choreographers who audition must conform their choreography and ideas to this theme. Over 100 students audition for these various numbers. Only about 50 to 60 are selected.

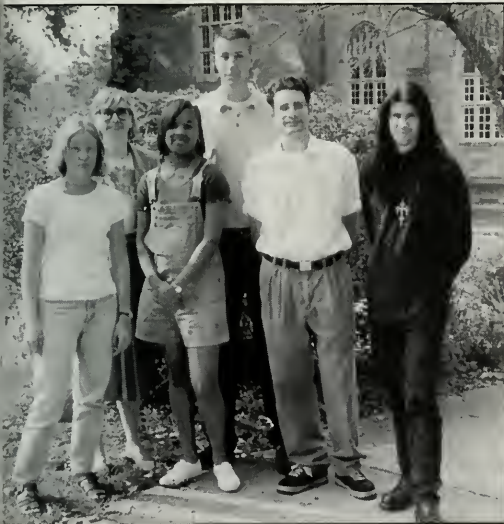

DPW Officers

French Club

German Club

▲ The 20 active members of the French Club sponsor trips to art museums, attend French plays in English and French, watch and critique films, hold picnics, etc. Their goal is to promote meaningful interactions in terms of education experience and social affairs to students interested in French culture, language, and history. The main purposes of the French Club are to promote enthusiasm among students for the French language and culture, and to provide students with a friendly but serious way to approach a foreign language. Because of the club's interest in cultural diversity, involvement in the French Club also encourages exploration of other foreign cultures. Through the many activities held by the club each semester, American students have the opportunity to meet native French speaking students who are studying here at WCU. This type of interaction enables greater understanding and appreciation, on both sides, of the other's culture.

The members of the German Club have a goal to share the German culture with West Chester University students through on-campus activities and excursions. These include: trips to German and Austrian restaurants, guest speakers, on-campus film showings, trips to cultural events, a trip to Lancaster, and the observance of German holidays. The German Club has been active in bringing to the campus a little of the culture most typically German.

Honors Student Association

► The Honors Student Association was founded at WCU in 1979. The 116 members, who are West Chester University students enrolled in the Honors Program, sponsor a web page, take a faculty member to lunch program, parents weekend program, annual ice cream social in the Fall - as a get to know everyone and faculty involved in Honors, tea at Tanglewood with President Adler for accepted Honors students, Spring awards ceremony, faculty recognition luncheon, summer study abroad program, and participate in return to schools program. Their goals are to organize various activities for the members and to help govern the honors program itself. The officers are selected in the Spring and serve as Honors Student Association representatives on the Honors council, the governing body of the Honors Program.

Italian Club

◀ The Italian Club was founded at WCU in 1963 to further the culture of Italy at WCU. The 20 members sponsor various activities, such as opera, market, films, and cooking. Their goal is to spread enthusiasm and appreciation for Italian culture. They welcome friends of members at all activities.

▼ The Philosophy Club was founded in 1972 at WCU. The seven members sponsor weekly group discussions on various topics (time, love, words), guest lecture forums where views can be presented and others can react to them, and a Philosophy department and Philosophy club banquet at each semester's end. They are dedicated to the dissemination of philosophical thought, and they strive to exemplify philosophy through their own lives. The Philosophy Club believes that everyone is a philosopher, and is dedicated to the idea that "we may never uncover a single iota of profundity, but we intend to have fun doing so."

Pre-Law Society

Philosophy Club

▲ The goal of the Pre-Law Society is to provide students with an interest in law and legal studies an organization through which they may build on that interest. The 15 to 20 members sponsor visits to law schools. They invite several speakers in to talk about the laws (i.e. admissions offices, attorneys, and judges and students attending law schools). They have speakers come in and talk about the LSAT and the admission process.

Political Science Club

◀ The goal of the Political Science Club is to inform the general populous of past as well as current political issues. Members are also encouraged to debate and discuss these issues with peers and faculty. The 15 to 20 members sponsor voter registration day, and guest political presentations. The Political Science Club attracts students who have an interest in government and politics by presenting forums, panels, speakers, and debates on current topics.

Psychology Club

▲ The Psychology Club was founded in 1970 at WCU. The 50 members sponsor formal and informal interchange among students, faculty, and invited scholars. The psychology club focuses on interests and opportunities related to the students. The purpose of this club is to provide experiences for students that enhance classroom instruction. Activities provide a forum for in-depth presentation of current research in given areas of psychology.

Russian Club

▲ The 20 members of the Russian club meet in Main 114 once a month. They sponsor: a field trip to Brighton Beach, New York; Russian film screenings and dinners; and speakers on Russian and Eastern European culture, politics, history, and literature. Their goals are to increase interest in Russian language, culture, history, politics, and area studies.

▶ The Student Nurse Association of Pennsylvania (SNAP) is part of the National Student Nurse Association. Only three members pay dues but any nursing student is eligible to be a member. Their goals are to provide professionalism within their major, and to give students an opportunity to meet with nursing students and professors outside the classroom. Membership provides an opportunity for scholarships, networking (at conventions), and professionalism within the Nursing major. SNAP does service projects in the community, has meetings with speakers, and meets outside the classroom to do activities such as promote skin cancer awareness by passing out samples of sun tan lotion. They also distributed condoms to promote safe sex and STD awareness.

Student Nurses' Association of Pennsylvania

Special Interest

Alumni Student Connection

► The Alumni Student Connection, ASC, was founded in 1996 at WCU to serve as the link between alumni and today's students. The 20 members meet alternate Thursdays at the Alumni House. ASC sponsors: a mentor program where alumni members outreach to current students so to help them in their future careers (Mentor WCU); Alumni Insights, where alumni return to speak to students about their experiences as a WCU student; and alumni weekend, which is held during graduation week when all alumni return to the campus (Senior Celebration). ASC also assists with reunions and other activities. Their purpose is to bridge the gap between post, current, and future students. They hope to make the student more aware of what will happen after graduation, as well as to bring alumni back to campus and to keep them involved in WCU; to keep alumni in touch and involved with campus life while working to make students aware of their potential roles as future alumni of West Chester University. ASC is a student organization dedicated to helping students - past, present, and future. It provides opportunities for leadership, communication, social interaction, and life-long friendships.

Chess Club

Asian American Association

▲ The Chess Club, a member of the United States Chess Federation, was founded at WCU in 1989. The 25 members sponsor chess tournaments, exhibitions, discussions and lectures on the history of chess and chess theory, and informal games. Their goals is to promote chess at West Chester University. The WCU chess club meets every Thursday night in Sykes Student Union building. The objective of this club is to assist interested students in developing their game, while simultaneously providing a source of entertainment.

▲ The Asian American Association, a 3, was established in 1995 to promote awareness of the Asian-American community on campus. Formed by a diverse group of Asian, Asian-American, and friends, a 3 unites its members and all students of West Chester University by learning and supporting cultures of various backgrounds. Furthermore, a 3 also promotes many activities, including community service and socials, to build a stronger relationship of its members and WCU students. If you are interested in joining a diverse-culture association, stop in 227 Sykes Student Union.

College Republicans

▲ The College Republicans, part of the College Republican National Committee, were founded in 1994 at WCU, and revived in 1997. The 30 members sponsor the following: Washington, D.C. trip to attend the conservative political action conference; voter registration drive; state college republican convention in Harrisburg, PA; campaign volunteering for republican candidates; working the polls on election day; and debates. Their purposes are to promote student exposure to the Republican party and the American Political System; to maintain the traditional and moral values this nation was founded on, yet always being receptive to new ideas; and to promote the feeling on national strength and pride in being an American, through good government, individual freedom, equality, responsibility, and self-less service. The College Republicans meet on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month in 203 Ruby Jones Hall.

▼ The WCU Dance Team was founded in 1997. The 19 members meet for practices on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The purpose of the WCU dance team is to provide its members with the opportunity to perform and choreograph routines which are performed at half-times of men's basketball games.

Dance Team

► The members of Hillel meet on Thursdays at 8pm in Sykes. They sponsor Shabbat dinners, socials (bagel brunches, holiday celebrations such as a model seder and a Chanukah party), services at Temple Keshar Israel and the Reform Congregation of West Chester during the holidays, and speakers. Their purpose is to provide social, religious, and spiritual events and surroundings for the Jewish students on campus. Also, Hillel is here to educate the whole campus population. Their purpose is to meet the needs of Jewish students at West Chester University and to assist non-Jewish students in better understanding Judaism.

▼ Founded in 1976, with 85 members, the Safe Space Alliance is the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and ally alliance of West Chester University. This organization sponsors: social and educational events, service projects, peer advisement, representation in SGA, educational outreach and speak-outs in classes, as well as consulting with faculty on course syllabi (which include content on sexual orientation). The goal of the Safe Space Alliance is to educate the campus and local communities, sponsor social events and create a safe space for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people to come out and be themselves. They seek to educate and sensitize the University community to all forms of oppression, and to foster leadership and growth for LGBT students at West Chester University.

Safe Space Alliance

Hillel Jewish Student Union

Service and Honor

The Abbé Society

► The Abbé Society, which was founded at WCU in 1959, invites women who are leaders on campus and the community to join in recognition of their character and leadership. The 28 sisters dedicate themselves to a variety of service projects such as Community Dinners at Holy Trinity Church in West Chester, Habitat for Humanity, Ronald McDonald House, Kindred House, Adopt a Block, Walk America, AIDS Walk, Philadelphia Cares, campus blood drive, and they began service week - a week dedicated to community service. Their goals are to demonstrate the qualities of friendship, leadership, and character; and to commit themselves to community service both on and off campus. The Abbé Society is an honorary service organization (last year alone they did over 1200 hours of service) that strives to uphold the qualities of friendship, leadership, and character through continuous service to the West Chester University campus and the surrounding community.

Alpha Phi Omega

▲ Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity founded on May 16, 1965. # Media

Daedalus

Daedalus is West Chester's magazine of the arts featuring short fiction, nonfiction, poetry, art, and photography from West Chester University students. Submissions are accepted year 'round by the English Department. Daedalus is produced by the students enrolled in English 275, a course offered each spring.

The Quad

Partially funded by the student activity fee, The Quad is published every Tuesday during the academic year. Undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in gaining valuable experience in any aspect of journalism, including reporting, production, advertising, photography, and graphic design are welcome to apply for positions on The Quad. No prior experience is necessary to become a member of West Chester's student press. The student-run weekly newspaper has been on our campus 1932. With between 60 and 70 members, the newspaper provides a comprehensive objective newspaper on a weekly basis to students, faculty of West Chester University, and the surrounding community and to also provide experience to journalism students who wish to hone their writing abilities and publish articles.

The Serpentine

The Serpentine is a pictorial and written record on the year's University activities. The yearbook is a student run organization. Included in the book are sections on student life, events, seniors, clubs and organizations, and sports. The Serpentine staff consisted of between five and ten West Chester University students. Their countless hours of hard work went into the production of the 1998 Serpentine Yearbook. Each page was carefully planned and laid out using the computerized desktop publishing program, Ul-travision. Many days and nights were spent inside the yearbook office in Sykes to make layouts, select and crop pictures, write copy, and finish it all by the deadlines. May the Serpentine hold all the fond memories of your years here at West Chester University.

West Chester Television

WCU-4 TV provides television news access and entertainment, as well as experience for all students interested in television production. WCU-4 TV broadcasts its programming on channel four for all residence hall students. Membership includes but is not limited to those students who are interested in the technical and talent aspects of television production. WCU-4 TV has produced various news and magazine shows such as "Sound Around Town." In addition, the station has covered various University sporting and special events. WCU-4 TV explores and encourages student ideas on a wide array of new programming options.

Media Advisory Board

The Media Advisory Board was established to address issues with West Chester University media organizations and members of the campus community. In addition to serving as a means of information sharing and mutual support among the various media organizations, the board's purpose is to serve as a forum for discussion of issues and problems affecting student media organizations and to recommend solutions. The board also reviews complaints about the performance of student media, protects the First Amendment rights of student media, and makes student media personnel aware of their responsibilities to the campus community.

West Chester University Radio

▲ WCUR's 25 members D.J. different events for organizations, as well as sponsoring spring concerts. WCUR is the campus radio station run by the students. It is used as a source of education and entertainment. Their goal is to teach students more about the broadcasting spectrum.

Fencing Club

Men's Volleyball

► The Men's Volleyball club began at West Chester in the Fall of 1990. Their goals are to allow all graduate and undergraduate students associated with the university to take part in intercollegiate and United States Volleyball Association (USVBA) matches, and to allow its members a chance to develop volleyball skills and to represent West Chester University. By continuing their winning ways they hope to elevate the university's reputation for intercollegiate endeavors. The club currently has 25 members.

Musical

Concert Choir

▲ Concert Choir was founded at WCU in 1978. These 40 outstanding musicians are devoted to the accurate and musical performance of an extensive repertoire of widely varying musical styles. In addition to regular concerts in the West Chester and Wilmington areas, the choir went touring to Los Angeles and San Francisco in March of 1997. This ensemble is a very select group of mixed voices within the school of music.

Sigma Alpha Iota

▲ The Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota was founded at WCU on April 21, 1968. The 34 members - of this internationally incorporated professional fraternity for women in music - participate in Christmas caroling in nursing homes, group service projects, musicale, and donation to Salvation Army. Sigma Alpha Iota is an academic music fraternity, dedicated to service in the field of music. Their goals are to give women the opportunity to promote music and keep a high academic standing. This organization is made up of women with a wide variety of majors, but all have an interest in music. Membership, by invitation, recognizes scholarship and musicianship.

Tau Beta Sigma

◀ Tau Beta Sigma, which was founded on November 22, 1981, contributes morale, spirit, enthusiasm, atmosphere, and above all, service to the West Chester University bands. This national honorary band sorority prides itself in service to all the bands at the University. The eleven sisters sponsor: band buddies for new students entering the marching band, adopt-a-highway, concessions at WCU sponsored cavalcades and Jazz Fest, and receptions after band concerts. Tau Beta Sigma is a national honorary band sorority that is based in Swope Hall. The members of this organization dedicate their time and effort by providing enthusiasm, spirit, morale, and mostly service to any band or band activity. Membership is open to any member of a West Chester University band and/or band front.

Kappa Kappa Psi

► The Eta Rho chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi was founded at West Chester University on November 22, 1981. The goal of the 20 plus members of Kappa Kappa Psi is to promote the existence and welfare of the college and university band and to cultivate at large a wholesome respect and appreciation for their activities and achievements. Their activities include: service projects to the university bands, the School of Music, the university, and the community; fundraising and socials. Kappa Kappa Psi is a national honorary band fraternity dedicated to providing all band organizations with coordinated service activities. Members exhibit the following characteristics: must be qualified musicians and band members, possess unusually good character, and demonstrate leadership potential.

Marching Band

The Golden Rams Marching Band is one of the top bands on the East Coast. The 200 plus band members actively support the WCU football team with half-time show performances at all home games and a few away games. They also give exhibition performances in the Cavalcade of Bands, the Tournament of Bands, and the Cadets Marching Band Competition Circuits. The band is made up of students who spend hours putting together drills, routines, and music. Perfect harmony, intonation, and the sure footed steps of the group take the golden sounds of their musical ability to create an emotion, an inspiration, and a sense of pride. No matter what type of weather or game the stadium may be experiencing, the sounds of the Golden Rams will always get the crowd on their feet to psyche up our team toward a victory.

Seniors

Doesn't it seem like only yesterday that you were graduating from high school? Graduation practice, getting fitted for your cap and gown, getting your senior portraits taken, and finally walking up on stage to receive your hard earned diploma. And now, four (or more for some of us) years later, you are doing the same thing again. Graduation from high school seemed like such a big accomplishment then. Your friends and relatives were so proud of you. But now you are graduating from college. You have succeeded in a much bigger obstacle. For some of us, we are the first in our family to even go to college. For others, we are following in the footsteps of our parents or older siblings. But for us all, we have achieved the goal we set out to attain - to graduate from West Chester University. Our friendships and memories have helped us through our college years. And now, as we travel our separate roads, not knowing what the future holds, we will be able to look back on these times with fondness and keep steady on our chosen paths.

Congratulations Class of 1998!

Closing

Here we are, in our final hours as West Chester University students. We are about to go our separate ways into the world, taking with us the pride that we gained here. This journey, for most of us, began as Freshmen years ago. We entered this school unknowing of the future that lay ahead of us. We were unsure of the path that would lead us to this day, our graduation day. Like freshmen, we are entering a world where the future is unknown. Some of us will move far away, some will stay, some will move home, but above

◀ President Adler congratulates the December 1997 graduates as they enter into the "real world".

▲▲ This graduate is pondering her future as she waits for her name to be called.

▲ This December 1997 graduate, Markeeth Taylor, receives his diploma after his years of hard work.

all we will forever be West Chester alumni.

We will never forget the times we shared here. The laughter, the tears, dorm life, off-campus life, basement parties, the Rat, Amore, the cafeteria, sporting events, and all that academic stuff that we encountered too.

Here we are now, ready to move into the future. We are about to enter the next phase of the journey of life. We will take with us the memories and knowledge that we have gained here. Best Wishes to the Class of 1998!

West Chester University Graduates

The time is finally here for the class of 1998! It was a long journey to finally arrive to this day, some longer than others. It all started with the mass confusion of finding the name card. There was anticipation at this moment because many were afraid their card would not be there. After the confusion it was time to line up as last minute adjustments were made to the attire. Finally all are in line and the procession begins.

As the line moves along, excited parents, family, and friends look for their graduate. Some are successful; others are not but when the name is finally called they cheer loudly. It is hard to believe that you are leaving a life, one that took a few years to build, behind. The memories we have made in that life: the late night study sessions, dorm wars, roommates, the "oh so quiet" library, parties, friends, classes, and the list can go on. Over all though this life has made us stronger and now it is time to face the "real world." It is a scary place but the first day of college seemed to be too and we made it just fine. Graduation day has finally arrived and every graduate can walk away with the pride of all of their accomplishments. Congratulations Class of 1998!

~ Class of 1998 ~

Marlene Walker, We are so proud of you! We sent you to West Chester University as a young lady and now you are graduating as an outstanding woman. We wish you all the luck in your teaching career. God Bless you always. Mom, Dad, Annette, and Wanda.

Todd, We are so proud of your accomplishments at West Chester University. Wishing you all the best that life has to offer. Congratulations! We love you, Dad, Mon, Tom and Tim, and all your family and friends.

Heather, We are proud of you on or off the field. Wishing you the best life has to offer. We love you. Love Mom, Dad, Brian, Erik, and Cocoa.

Robin, We are so proud of you accomplishments at West Chester University. You have grown into an outstanding woman. Keep up the good work. You deserve the best life has to offer. We love you. Mom, Dad, J, Mom-mom, and Pop-pop.

Eddie, We are so very proud of your many accomplishments at West Chester University. We love you and wish you much success in future endeavors. Love always, Mom & Michelle.

Tom, We are so proud of you. You have grown into a special young man. Congratulations on this wonderful achievement. May your future bring you as much happiness as you bring us today. Love, Mom, Dad, Jamie & Mat Robinson. P.S. It's never too early to branch out on your room.

Jennifer, You worked hard ( or was that hardly worked) at West Chester University. We are very proud of your achievements and we wish you good luck, good health and much happiness in the future!! Love, Mom, Dad, and Marc Goldberg.

Melissa Higbee, We hope you know how much we love you - for all you have been, for all you are today, and for all you can become. Your Family.

Sarah Ellis, We are so proud of your accomplishments, but most of all the special woman you have become. You have overcome many obstacles to achieve your goals, but never lost your concern for others. Your courage, hard work, and desire to succeed are truly an inspiration. Never change. Love Mom & Dad.

Christine, Words cannot express how much we love you and how proud we are of everything you have accomplished and the beautiful person you have become. Nanny would be so proud of her granddaughter. Wishing you the best life has to offer! Love, Mom, Dad, Gary, Matt, and Joe.

Michael Cogossi, FINALLY! We love you! Mom, Dad, and Family. We are very proud of you!

Micki, we are so proud of your accomplishments at West Chester University. You have grown up into an outstanding woman. Take the world by storm- you have earned it. We wish you the best life has to offer. We love you. Mom, Dad, and Jennie.

~ Parent Patrons ~

Rob, we are so proud of you, and you should also be proud of yourself. Now take everything you have learned in school, and everything you have learned from us, and put them to work in your future, wherever life may lead you. May God always watch over you. We love you! Mom, Dad, Ron, and "Mikey"

Dear Jamie, Where has four years gone? It seems like yesterday that you started West Chester. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished. We wish you all the best that life has to offer. We know that you will succeed in whatever path you choose. Good Luck! We love you. Mom, Dad, and Randy

Heather McGeever, Way to go. You are beautiful inside and out. Mom would have been proud. Now, go have some fun. Love you M.M. and Jeff. Haw- You are absolutely the best ever. Congrats on a super job. LTMFNAAF- Ant Jo.

Dear Angela, Congratulations on your graduation from WCU! We are so proud of all of your accomplishments of the past four years and of the beautiful self-assured woman you have become. Good luck with your graduate studies. Love, Mom, Dad, Christa & Aaron.

Dear Missy, We are so proud of you and how much you have accomplished during your college years. We know that you will be a success in whatever you set out to do. We love you! Mom and Barry

Dear Judy, We are all so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. May God continue to bless and watch over you always. All of our love, Mom, Dad, Ger, San, Ken, Kev

Luam, You cared so much and worked so hard to get where you are. Intelligent, Inquisitive, Proud, and Strong; yet overflowing with love and potential is what keeps you moving ahead. May the future be as bright as the promises of God. We love you very much. Mom, Dad, Madleine, and Danny.

Dear Kelly, You did it...and we knew you could. We are "prouder" of you than you could imagine. Just continue to reach for your dreams!! We love you always. XXX Mom, Dad, Marc, and Toni Trish, We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. It has been a joy to see you grow into the wonderful woman you are. You are everything a daughter should be. The best of everything the world has to offer. We can not wait to see you take on your future. Love you, Mom.

Annemarie, Congratulations on all of your outstanding accomplishments. Please know the love and pride that we feel for you. Never lose those values, skills, and your understanding heart and you will be the kind of woman the world is waiting for. We love you, Mom, Dad, Gary, Dan, and Kevin

To Brooke, our sunshine, we watched you grow into a sensitive loving woman. You possess skill and drive to go anywhere in life - we are so proud of you. God has blessed you with his compassionate heart and warm spirit which has always blessed our lives. Congratulations, Dugan, we love you. Mom, Dad, Adam, and Paige.

Horse, You did it! At last you will receive that hard earned degree. It was not as easy for you as for some, but you persevered and succeeded. More importantly, you have become the man I always knew you could be. For that I am so grateful and so very proud. You have fulfilled my dreams. Love, Mom

~ Class of 1998 ~

Alyse, We are very proud of your accomplishments. As you enter the next phase of your life, we hope you will find happiness and success. We love you very much. Mom, Dad, and Keith Goldschmidt.

Deana, You have made us very proud on this your graduation day. You faced many challenges and proved that you can do whatever you set your mind to. As you prepare for your new life filled with more opportunities remember that we always stand behind you. With all of our love, Mom & Bob Congratulations Catherine Schaar! Your dreams are coming true, being yourself made you succeed. With much pride and love always, Mom and Dad.

Deanne, We are so proud of you. You have filled our hearts with love and laughter. Remember to believe in yourself and follow your dreams. We wish you happiness and success as you journey down the yellow brick road to your next adventure. We love you. Mom, Dad, Michelle, John, and Sharon.

Dearest Joyce, May you always feel the "joie de vivre" (joy of living). May each moment be rewarding and fulfilling. May your dreams and reality be one in the same. May God's loving hand always protect and guide you. Blessings to you always! Love, Mom and Jack

Jennifer, You have always given us nothing but joy and happiness. We are very proud of you and what you have done. You are a special person and it is exciting to watch you on your path to success as you follow your dreams and make them reality. With love and pride, Mom, Dad, Jason, and Kelli Gerber.

Allison, "May God bless you and keep you always, may your wishes all come true, may you always do for others and let others do for you. May you build a ladder to the stars and climb every rung, may you stay forever young." (B. Dylan) Your accomplishments and personal growth have been a joy to see. Love, Mom and Bob

Dearest Eric, No words can possibly convey the love, joy, & pride that have our hearts overflowing. You have faced the most difficult challenges with incredible courage. Your spirit and zest for life are inspiring. Your accomplishments are truly amazing! With all our love and best wishes, Mom, Dad, & Jared Levitt

Danielle Bonner, You are my bright shining star. You always light up my life and I am sure soon you will light up the stage. You are a woman that I am proud to call my daughter, my partner and my friend. Let nothing get in the way of following your dreams. Love, Mom.

Vicki, We are so very proud of your accomplishments. All your hard work has paid off. We love you dearly, Mom, Dad, Michael, and Kate

Paul #77 Go Rams! Congratulations, your perseverance and dedication will have their rewards; the fruit of righteous is a tree of life. Continue to love the Lord with all your heart, mind, soul, & strength. We are proud of you & for the joy you have given us. With love, Mom, Dad, Joan, & Debbie.

Congratulations Jenn! We are proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Good luck as you enter into a new phase of your life after college. Always know that you have our love and support in any life decision you make or any path you take. The best is yet to come. Love ya, Mom, Dad, & Sandi

~ Parent Patrons ~

Christa Danato, From that special day of your birth we knew you would seize every moment. We want to thank you for all the little things you do that fill our lives with great joy and pride. Never let your troubles get you down, for you have a lot to offer. Remember we will be there whether it is face to face or through prayer. Mom and Dad.

Jeff Mann, We are so proud of your accomplishments at WCU. We are also proud of you as a person and know that you will succeed in life in whatever you do. Always be yourself. We wish you the best life has to offer. We love you always. Mom, Dad, & Carolyn.

Stacey, You did it! Now you are on your way. Teaching elementary school is how you will spend your days. Go after your dreams and find a happy place. Your hard work will surely put a smile on your face! You make us very proud, but what else is new? Oh, and of course, we love you, Mom, Dad, & Michael.

We are so very proud of you Kristen. You have worked very hard these past four years. Wishing you lots of success and happiness always. We love you. Mom, Dad, Bill, Michelle, Lou, and Eric

Jessica, we love you and we are very proud of you. "Seek ye first, the kingdom of God and his brightness and everything else shall be added unto you!" Love your whole family. The Parenti Family

Dear Elissa, Congratulations! We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. You are about to begin a very exciting phase of your life...work! We hope you find your work rewarding and we know you are going to be a great teacher! We love you very much and wish you the best life has to offer. You are a real joy to us all. Love, Mom, Dad, & Chris

To our dear son Stuart: We wish you the very best of everything wherever the twists and turns of life's journey may lead you. All our love, Mom and Dad

Kim, Throughout the years, you have made us proud so many times - this is another one of those times! May life be as good to you as you are to others. Always remember how much we love you. Mom, Dad, and Jeff.

Vince, I am so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments at West Chester University. I wish you the very best life has to offer and I love you very, very much, Mom

Tara, Congratulations on your graduation from West Chester! We are so proud of you. With love, Mom, Poppy, Brenda, Steve, Brianna, & Nate.

Jennifer Dainoff, It has been an absolute joy to watch you over your four years at West Chester mature into a sincere, dedicated student. Your record of academic excellence makes us very proud. We know you are going to be a superb teacher. We love you!! Mom, Dad, Harris, Rose, Grandma, Nanny & Pop-pop

Amy, we have enjoyed watching you go through each new stage of life with enthusiasm, always anxious for the next new adventure. May all the joys in life follow you as you begin your next adventure. We're so proud of you! Love Mom, Dad, and Marc

The 1997-1998 Serpentine Staff

The 1997-1998 Serpentine is now complete. For years to come this book will link every student that attended West Chester University in this year to the memories that were made here. What most of these people do not realize is that this book took many hours of dedication and hard work.

It all began in the early summer of 1997. The editorial staff was chosen and the recruiting began. The fall semester was about organizing and prepping for the weeks ahead. The first deadline came in February and we scrambled to put together the memories that were made in the Fall months. It took many hours for the staff to work on layouts, articles, captions, as well as other needed tasks.

I would like to thank every person who helped in any way with the publication of this book. All of the SSI personnel, Sykes Union workers, Earl in the bookstore, the Alumni House, the Cultural Affairs department, Dr. Adler, all CWS photographers for going above and beyond your duties.

Ed, Mike, Mike, Joe, Mell, Diane D., Mary A., Michelle, Mendy, Katie, Angie, Tara, Tommy, and of course the guy who put the door in our wall, each of these people went above and beyond in times of need. Thanks to all of those who have gone unmentioned. Each one of you have a special place in my heart and the efforts that you have given is much appreciated.

I will actually miss the long hours at Sykes, the computer malfunctions, the game of volleyball with the Friars and Abbe's over the wall, the bizarre sounding phone, the SGA and Caos office wars, among many other things. Most of all I will miss each and every one of you. Thank you.

Denise Bowman

Editorial: Michelle Kee, an Elementary Education junior, and Denise Bowman, a Communications senior, were the Co-Editor-in-Chiefs for the 1998 book. Both worked countless hours on everything from the basic layouts to correcting every page of the book. Michelle will be returning as Editor-in-Chief for the 1999 book.

The Higher Powers: Without the guidance of these three men, the responsibility of producing this book would not run smoothly. Michael Peich, advisor, Mike Durinzi, Carl Wolf Studios representative, and Joe Cunningham, SSI Business advisor, all gave our staff their undivided attention and support throughout the year and the entire staff would like to thank them.

Athletics section: Katie Shawlis, a Forensic Chemistry freshman, worked as the Editor of the Athletics section. She worked hard in the free time that she had available and was a great team player. Katie will return to the 1998 staff. Thanks Katie, from everything you did for the book to listening to me.

Business: Mendy Brown, right, a junior Environmental Health major, was the Business manager. She gave her time to keeping the books, working closely with SSI, working on the budget, as well as other needed tasks. She did a wonderful job organizing the books. Mendy will return to the editorial staff in 1998.

Events Section: Tara Reynolds, a senior Computer Science major, was the Editor of the Events section. She contributed her time over many other commitments and was a great asset to the completion of the 1998 book. Thank you and congratulations Tara, we will miss you.

Senior section: Angie Price, a Special Education freshman, was the Editor of the senior section. She spent countless hours putting in hundreds of names, addresses, and majors into the computer. Thank you Angie for all your help and your patience. Angie is returning to the 1998 staff.

Savior: Ed Patrick, Jr. is our Taylor representative. Ed has assisted the Serpentine staff for many years and continues to guide the staff to successful books. Ed is a true asset to the staff and all thank him.

What can I say, I like to utilize every part of the office.

CWS Photographers: Drew Simcox, Michael Durinzi, Bill Philips, Bob Campsell, Rick Pitetti, and Chris Kline. These gentlemen will bend over backwards to help things run smoothly and we appreciate all of your help and photos.

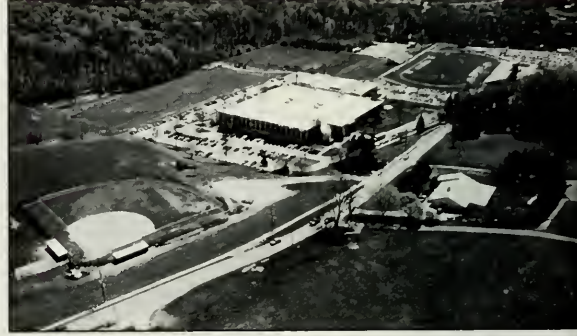

▲ Joe Cunningham and Mike Durinzi check out the 1997 Serpentine at the Reception held in October.

Denise and Jen Gerber after graduation. Jen gave a lot of time to the staff in the years she attended WCU. In between her student teaching she would give what little time she had.

▲ What a ride...from Philadelphia to West Chester in ten minutes!

Congratulations and Farewell

To the Graduating Class of 1997 and 1998. Your years at West Chester University are finally over. You have earned a degree, and hopefully - in the process - a good college education. You came to West Chester University as a "new" student; you leave as a college graduate. You are now entering into the real world as a new person. You have so many doors of opportunity to choose from; where will your next journey begin? Through it all, may you always remember your years at West Chester University. And never forget, Everything old is new again. Best Wishes Graduates!
